In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by 1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights 1400 Independence Avenue, SW Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

Privacy Act Statement:

This explains how we will use the information you give us. The Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act requires that, unless the participant's food stamp or FDPIR number is provided, you must include the social security number of the household member signing the statement or an indication that the household member signing the statement does not possess a social security number. Provision of a social security number is not mandatory, but if a social security number is not provided or an indication is not made that the adult household member signing the statement does not have one, the statement cannot be approved. The social security number may be used to identify the household member in carrying out efforts to verify the correctness of the information on the statement. These verification efforts may be carried out through program reviews, audits, and investigations and may include contacting employers to determine income, contacting a food stamp or FDPIR office to determine current certification for receipt of SNAP (food stamp) or FDPIR benefits, contacting the State employment security office to determine the amount of benefits received and checking the documentation produced by the household member to verify the amount of income received. These efforts may result in a loss or reduction of or reduction of benefits, administrative claims, or legal action if incorrect information is reported.
